THE senatorial farce was continued at Nashville yesterday, and will, no doubt, be ontinued to-day-perhaps during the week, For this misappropriation of the public time the people are indebted, we regret to say, to the Democrats, who, being in the majority in the legislature, have it in their power to put a stop to it at any time. They have so far thrown away their votes by voting for men, however worthy, on whom it was impossible, with their high and low-tax prejudices, for them to unite. These prejudices should never have been permitted to ral Bate and Major Edgington have 10 o'clock a.m., and got into a wrangle which suggested, in their published letters, the position that candidates have taken on the State debt question ought not to count for or against them. In the court of the queen's bench to-day Judge Fitzgerald, in charging the jury in the case of the crown against the traversers, expressed gratification at the fairness and justice with which both sides had conducted the case. He said the jury must dismiss from their minds all they had heard or read outside the court and only consider the evidence. He pointed out that the land laws o

Ireland were more favorable than those of Great Britain. Judge Fitzgerald, in his charge to the jury, repudiated both the theory of the defense that the Land League was chiefly a charita-ble association, and the contrary theory that it was a scheme of socialism devised in America, and by Americans. He said: "They are as a nation noble and generous, no scheme of socialism for the destruction of property in Ireland had been devised by At the same time he strongly cen sured the Irish-American idlers, who had returned to Ireland to stir up dissensions.
